Dear Mr. Strachman,

Your notices of deposition dated April 11, 2005 were faxed on receipt to the Mission of Palestine to the United Nations for transmission to Palestine.

As you know, Palestine's former U.N. Ambassador, Nasser al Kidwa has been appointed Foreign Minister, no replacement has been named, and we continue to communicate through Minister Al-Kidwa. He was traveling outside Palestine and I was unable to reach him until Thursday of last week in Jordan. I talked with him at that time and explained the deposition notices and the need to determine whether Palestine is obligated or will agree to produce witnesses pursuant to the notice and if so, who will have the information requested.

Minister al-Kidwa called late yesterday to say no one in the U.S. has the information sought. Under the difficult circumstances existing in Palestine and the many demands on the new government, it will take several weeks to make a thorough search for the information sought and determine the appropriate witness to testify. That witness will be made available then, probably in Ramallah, and hopefully not later than the week of May 9 if Palestine determines that it is obligated, or will agree to the depositions.

I will advise you as soon as a decision is made and a time for the deposition can be determined and with sufficient advance notice for counsel to be present.

If you wish to discuss this please, call me, or Larry Schilling.

Sincerely,

Ramsey Clark
